where it's good to know the answer

- 1 Where can I purchase the BUDAPEST CARD?
- 2 Who can use the 72-hour Junior BUDAPEST CARD?
- 3 Are all museums open on Mondays?
- 4 Do museums provide free entry to their temporary exhibitions too for Budapest Card owners?
- 5 Which means of public transport are not included free of charge?
- 6 Is a pre-registration necessary for any of the services?
- 7 In which language do you offer free guided sightseeing walks?
- 8 Is it possible that the opening hours or the ticket prices in the Budapest Guide are not accurate?
- 9 Can unused BUDAPEST CARDS be redeemed?
- 10 How can I get the free return ticket to the Buda Castle Funicular included in the Budapest Card 72h Plus?
- 1 Via the website www.budapestinfo.hu in the BUDAPESTINFO POINT® and at more than 300 reseller partners!
- 2 Children and teens over 6 and under 18 in order to use the services, the card holder should present an identification card which proves their age, and service providers are entitled to check this. Discounts are deducted from the 'full-price tickets'.
- 3 Usually museums are closed on Mondays, please check actual opening hours at each museums' website.
- 4 It depends on the museum, for proper information, please check the museum's description on www.budapestinfo.hu.
- 5 The suburban railway (HÉV) beyond the city boundaries, the 100E bus and Hop On Hop Off buses.
- 6 Services for which a pre-registration is necessary are indicated.
- 7 In English.
- 8 The editing process of the Budapest Guide was closed on 1 March 2020, so BFTK Nonprofit Kft. cannot be held liable for any possible changes that have been introduced by our service provider partners after this date.
- 9 The card cannot be redeemed, even if it has not been used. If it has not been used, it can be used for your next visit to Budapest until 31.03.2021.
- 10 For Budapest Card 72h Plus owners the Buda Castle Funicular free return ticket is only available at the BUDAPESTINFO POINT office at Deák Ferenc tér (1052 Budapest, Sütő utca 2. Opening hours: 8 am–8 pm) and BUDAPESTINFO POINT Buda Castle – Pavilion of Szentháromság tér (1014 Budapest, Tárnok utca 15. Opening hours: 9 am–6 pm). Please note, without picking up the ticket, the FUNICULAR is NOT AVAILABLE.

There is a project gallery in the basement, Art Shop gift and bookshop in the aula and cafés on the terrace and lower ground floor.

HUNGARIAN NATIONAL MUSEUM

The Hungarian National Museum is Hungary's first museum. Visitors can discover the Carpathian Basin's millennial history, from ancient times to the change of regime, in this one-of-a-kind classicist building. The exhibitions display priceless treasures from Hungarian cultural history. The Seuso Treasure - among the most valuable hoards of late Roman period silver objects - has a special place among the museum's world-renowned archaeological artefacts.

The Hungarian Parliament, richly decorated both inside and out, was inspired by the Houses of Parliament in London, thus it was designed in Neo-Gothic style, although it also bears Renaissance and Baroque stylistic flourishes. The third largest parliament in the world, it was built on the 1000th anniversary of the foundation of the state of Hungary. During the 45-50 minute tour of Parliament, visitors are shown the session chamber of the Upper House, the lounge of the Upper House, Dome Hall - including the Hungarian royal crown and coronation regalia - as well as the ornamented staircase covered with red carpet.

1118 Budapest,
Gellérthegy,
Citadella sétány 1.

The fortress on top of Gellért Hill was built by the Habsburgs in 1854, after the crushing end to the 1848–49 War of Independence. It is now a broadcast point for several radio stations, while there are restaurants and hotels inside the building, as well as exhibitions of photography and military history. Standing by the south-eastern bastion of the Citadel is the Liberty Statue, one of the symbols of Budapest.

DANUBE PROMENADE

INFO

1051 Budapest,
Belgrád rakpart

The Danube Promenade stretches between the Chain Bridge and the Elisabeth Bridge on the Pest side of the river. The panorama over the Buda Castle, the Citadel and the Gellért Hill is the most beautiful from here. The „Little Princess” statue, which is often captured in photos, is sitting on the railings of the promenade at Vigadó tér.

HISTORICAL SITES, SIGHTS

SHOES BY THE DANUBE BANK

The sixty pairs of bronze shoes modelled on footwear from the 1940s commemorate those who were shot into the Danube by the Hungarian Nazis. Gyula Pauer and Can Togay's composition was unveiled in 2005, on the 60th anniversary of the Holocaust, and it has been a reminder ever since of the tragedy that Budapest will always remember.

VÁCI STREET, VÖRÖSMARTY SQUARE

Váci Street is a famous shopping and pedestrian street in Budapest. It runs from Vörösmarty Square to the Central Market Hall, and it is approximately two kilometres long. On the section of Váci Street near Vörösmarty Square there is a row of brand-name fashion shops, while the southern part is known instead for its gift shops and bistros.

HEROES' SQUARE

One of the most ancient squares takes its name from the memorial standing in the middle. In the centre of the group of statues, marking the thousandth anniversary of the Magyar Conquest, is a representation of Archangel Gabriel on top of a 36-m-high column, holding the apostolic double cross and Hungarian Holy Crown. Quarter-circle colonnades to both left and right feature Hungarian rulers, generals and freedom fighters. It is a dramatic sight, both during the day and illuminated at night.

Comprising 21 sections in Romanesque, Gothic and Renaissance-Baroque styles, the complex was built for the 1896 millennial celebrations to represent one thousand years of Hungarian architecture. It gained the current name after its most distinctive part, the main facade that is modelled on the Gothic castle of Vajdahunyad, Transylvania. Next to the castle is a 2-metre statue of Anonymus, the author of Gesta Hungarorum.

TOMB OF GÜL BABA

The tomb of Gül Baba, a mysterious Dervish poet, is one of the gems of Buda. Built by Buda's third pasha in 1543, the domed, octagonal building is a unique memento of Hungary's 150-year-long Turkish occupation. A destination for both Islamic pilgrims and those seeking a romantic walk, the site is also a perfect platform for views of the 20 August fireworks display.

GASTRONOMY

Goulash soup, paprika chicken, lángos (deep-fried flatbread), and pálinka – there is hardly any tourist arriving in Budapest who could not list at least 4 or 5 typically Hungarian dishes, drinks and other specialties.

The specific flavours of Hungarian cuisine have been well-known beyond the borders of Hungary for a long time: Hungarian people love to eat meat together with meat – or, alternatively, with an especially filling Hungarian pasta type called nokedli – pork and beef cutlets, cheese and mushroom fried in breadcrumbs, and other similar dishes enriched with spicy Hungarian paprika.

NEW YORK CAFE

The history of the New York Café, which is more than 120 years old, has become one with literature. The place, which is also known as the "most beautiful café in the world", has survived several eras, several political systems and major changes in history, and it has always revived. And it has always been a perfect choice for artists, who long for convenience and a cosy atmosphere, and of course for ordinary people as well. Nowadays the situation is the same: the marvellous building, which was rebuilt by the Boscolo Group, means the same in the 21st century as in the world which used to be more receptive to beauty: the most beautiful café in the world, in Budapest!

We welcome our guests with pálinka and freshly baked pogácsa (Hungarian-style scone). They can visit a farm courtyard with indigenous animals, the winner's stables and 21-time coachman world champions, the Lázár brothers' museum. This is followed by a 45-minute traditional horse show, after which our guests can attend a forest cart-ride. Enjoy a meal in one of our Hungarian-style inns (but do not forget to make a reservation in advance)!

SIGHTSEEING CRUISES ALONG THE BRANCH OF THE LITTLE DANUBE

Using the renovated, air-conditioned and family- friendly MAHART boats, you can reach the settlements along the Little Danube quickly and easily. Whatever you plan for the weekend-sightseeing in Szentendre, going to the beach in Leányfalu, participating in jousts, bobsledding in Visegrád or visiting the ecclesiastical collection in Esztergom, which is unique in Hungary - you can do all of it in the most comfortable way on MAHART boats.

CHURCH OF OUR LADY (MATTHIAS CHURCH) AT BUDA CASTLE

The Church of Our Lady (Matthias Church) at Buda Castle commemorates Hungarian history in all its details. The richly decorated walls and Gothic windows depict the lives of Hungarian national heroes and saints. The church witnessed the coronation of the last two Hungarian kings and it is still the venue for high-level church and state ceremonies today. The church regularly welcomes visitors with concerts and exhibitions.

Opening hours of the church may vary during church events and liturgies, when church events are given priority. Please consult the Event Calendar

PUBLIC TRANSPORT (BKK)

With 268 bus, 32 tram, 15 trolleybus, and 4 underground lines, Budapest has one of the most comprehensive public transport systems among the capitals of Europe. It also includes cogwheel and commuter trains, a funicular, and boat-and chairlift services. Daytime services are available between 4.30 am and 11.30 pm, while at night you can get around with night buses or Tram No. 6, which runs round the clock. Further information: +36 (1) 325 5255; www.bkk.hu

TAXI

While several companies run taxis in the capital, all licensed cabs are yellow, have yellow licence plates, and are marked "Licensed Budapest taxi" on the driver's door. You have taken a licensed Budapest taxi if you can see the driver's photo ID and the table of fares on the dashboard and the insides of the passenger doors. All fares are licensed: the minimum fare is HUF 450, the standard fare is HUF 280 per kilometre, and there is a waiting charge of HUF 70 per minute. Cash and bank cards are both accepted. Make sure to get the receipt printed by the taximeter at the end of your journey so that you can check whether the licensed fares have been applied, and to ensure a swift remedy for whatever complaint you may have.

LOOKING AFTER YOUR VALUABLES

Never leave your luggage and valuables unattended. If you cannot immediately move into your room upon arrival, use a left-luggage office or a similar service at your hotel. At lidos or spas, use the changing cubicles and safe deposits. Be particularly mindful of your valuables in the street, in busy locations, shopping precincts, and public transport stops and vehicles. Avoid calling others' attention to the valuables on your person, such as your telephone, camera, cash and jewellery. Should persons in uniform in a public space demand you identify yourself and present your papers, make sure you are indeed talking to a public officer, and ask them to show you their photo ID and badge. Your personal data should be verified over the radio, so you need not, and should not, lose sight of your documents. In case of a theft or robbery, contact the nearest crime prevention centre of the police in the Castle or at Heroes' Square. If you become a victim, call the toll-free emergency numbers 112 or 107, or visit the website of the Budapest Police Headquarters: www.police.hu/brfk. Further help is available at <http://safetyinhungary.info>.

REGULATIONS ON SMOKING AND ALCOHOL CONSUMPTION

Tobacco products can only be purchased at licensed tobacconists, the "Nemzeti Dohányboltok." Smoking is forbidden in indoor public spaces such as bars, restaurants and pubs, and out of doors in the following cases: in public transport stops, and within five metres from the entrance of businesses and workplaces. Elsewhere, smoking is allowed at designated places only. Alcohol consumption is forbidden in public spaces. Persons under 18 years of age cannot be served alcohol, nor can they enter the tobacconists. Certain places of entertainment may also bar them from entering.

RESTAURANTS, BARS

Before you order, make sure you are familiar with the prices and service charges, which you can usually find on the menu and wine list. Tips are not obligatory, but if you choose to give, the customary rate is 10 per cent of the bill. Be wary of overfamiliar strangers or attractive women in the street who accost you and suggest a "good place," where you are expected to pay for their drinks - at extortionate prices.

BUDAPEST IN FIGURES

- 525 sq km
- 1.8 million inhabitants
- 23 administrative districts
- Buda is hilly, Pest is flat, and the two are separated by the River Danube.
- 9 bridges, 3 islands

USEFUL INFORMATIONS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Official language:

Hungarian; English and German are the most frequently used second languages. Hungary has been a member of the European Union since 2004, and forms a boundary of the Schengen Area.

Official currency: forint (Ft or HUF).

Currency exchange tip:

Do not agree to change you currency to forint with strangers in the street. Use licensed bureaux de change instead, and make sure you get a receipt. For current mean exchange rates, visit the homepage of the central bank: www.mnb.hu

Telephone prefixes:

+36 (Hungary) 1 (Budapest) Budapest landline and mobile phone numbers have seven digits (plus area code, e.g. Budapest: +36 1 111 1111, mobile: +36 20/30/70 111 1111), other landline numbers have six digits (plus area code, e.g. +36 34 111 111).

Climate:

four seasons, with July and August the hottest months (+25/+40 °C) and December and January the coldest (-4/-15 °C).

Time zone: UTC + 1 hour; summer time (March–October): UTC + 2 hours

Bank holidays:

all Sundays, and public holidays (1 January, 15 March, Easter, 1 May, Whit Monday, 20 August, 23 October, 1 November, 25–26 December).

Customary opening hours:

offices: 8 am–4 pm, Mon–Fri;
banks: 8 am–5 pm Mon–Thu, 8 am–2 pm Fri;
central post office: 6th District (Pest), 51 Teréz körút (Tram No 4/6), 7 am–8 pm Mon–Fri, 7 am–6 pm Sat;
shops: 10 am–6 pm Mon–Fri, 10 am–2 pm Sat–Sun

Shopping tip:

Boutiques and shopping precincts keep open until the evening hours on Saturdays, but close in the early afternoon or do not even open on Sundays. Shopping on Sundays is most convenient at the shopping centres, which tend to be open 10 am–9 pm Mon–Sat, and 10 am–6 pm Sun.

Parking tip:

Budapest is divided into parking zones, and fees vary from one zone to the next. Find the parking meter closest to your car, and insert the necessary amount using coins that are marked as accepted. Display the slip behind the windshield. You may also purchase parking time by sending an SMS to the number displayed on the meter, but only Hungarian phone numbers can be used for the transaction. The paid parking hours can also vary over zones, though generally the 8 am – 8 pm period is paying, while weekends are free (with the exception of special zones, like Buda Castle). For short-term stops, coaches are recommended to use the car park behind Múcsarnok, or one of the P+R car parks near the major sights..
